NEW QUESTION: 3

Which of the following statements describes the same characteristic for both an S corporation and a C corporation?

- A. Both corporations can have more than 100 shareholders.
- B. Shareholders can be either citizens of the United States or foreign countries.
- C. Both corporations have the disadvantage of double taxation.
- D. Shareholders can contribute property into a corporation without being taxed.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Choice "c" is correct. Either entity's shareholders may contribute property to the corporations without being taxed and may contribute such property as an exchange for stock as appraised by the directors.

Choice "a" is incorrect. An S corporation may not have more than 100 shareholders, although a C corporation may have as many shareholders as desired.

Choice "b" is incorrect. Only the C corporation is subject to the double taxation disadvantage.

Choice "d" is incorrect. Only an S corporation is prohibited from having foreign country shareholders.
