D. Create a list item instead; a list of values is not appropriate for a static list.
Answer: C
Explanation:
Explanation: ow to create LOV in Oracle forms?
List of Values(LOV) are used either when a selected list is too long and hence would not be appropriate for a drop down, but needs a search form to select the value.
Steps to create LOV functionality:
* Click on the LOV icon in the object navigator and choose a manual/automatic wizard. This will create a record group.
* Open a search form in the Dialog Page
* Select values inside this form.
* Return selected values to the original page.
