NEW QUESTION: 1 A. Option CB. Option DC. Option BD. Option A
Answer: C Explanation: *Unix-like operating systems identify users within the kernel by an unsigned integer value called a user identifier, often abbreviated to UID or User ID. The range of UID values varies amongst different systems; at the very least, a UID represents a 15-bit integer, ranging between 0 and The UID value references users in the /etc/passwd file. Shadow password files and Network Information Service also refer to numeric UIDs. The user identifier has become a necessary component of Unix file systems and processes.*In POSIX-compliant environments the command-line command id gives the user's user identifier number as well as more information on the user account like the user name, primary user group and group identifier (GID).*Files and directories are owned by a user. The owner determines the file's owner class. Distinct permissions apply to the owner. Files and directories are assigned a group, which define the file's group class. Distinct permissions apply to members of the file's group members. The owner may be a member of the file's group. Users who are not the owner, nor a member of the group, comprise a file's others class. Distinct permissions apply to others. The effective permissions are determined based on the user's class. For example, the user who is the owner of the file will have the permissions given to the owner class regardless of the permissions assigned to the group class or others class.

NEW QUESTION: 4 A network engineer changed the port speed and duplex setting of an existing EtherChannel bundle that uses the PAgP protocol. Which statement describes what happens to all ports in the bundle?A. PAgP changes the port speed but not the duplex for all ports in the bundle.B. PAgP drops the ports that do not match the configuration.C. PAgP changes the port speed and duplex for all ports in the bundle.D. PAgP does not change the port speed and duplex for all ports in the bundle until the switch is rebooted.Answer: C*Explanation:PAgP aids in the automatic creation of EtherChannel links. PAgP packets are sent between EtherChannel- capable ports in order to negotiate the formation of a channel. Some restrictions are deliberately introduced into PAgP. The restrictions are: PAgP does not form a bundle on ports that are configured for dynamic VLANs. PAgP requires that all ports in the channel belong to the same VLAN or are configured as trunk ports. When a bundle already exists and a VLAN of a port is modified, all ports in the bundle are modified to match that VLAN.PAgP does not group ports that operate at different speeds or port duplex. If speed and duplex change when a bundle exists, PAgP changes the port speed and duplex for all ports in the bundle.PAgP modes are off, auto, desirable, and on. Only the combinations auto-desirable, desirable- desirable, and on-on allow the formation of a channel. The device on the other side must have PAgP set to on if a device on one side of the channel does not support PAgP, such as a router.Reference: http:// www.cisco.com/c/en/us/support/docs/lan-switching/etherchannel/12023-4.html
